Read the following scenario and answer questions 45-48 with regard to community engagement and empowerment

In the rural community where you are working you noticed that there are many older persons that need to care for, babies and toddlers because during the day the parents go to work. These older persons are left to care for babies and toddlers on their own. Many of them think that it is good if the baby or toddler is just cared for physically and if they are taught to sit and obey orders. Some of the elderly themselves require assistance with activities of daily living. In most cases they are not even able to prepare food for themselves. The community wants to start a project to assist these older persons by teaching them activities that will stimulate early development and growth in these children. You, as community nurse / worker, are approached to assist with this project.

- 45 Objectives for a project addressing this specific need could be to
- a ensure that every older person in the project is visited at least weekly
 - b provide guidelines for affordable meals for each older person once a day
